THE LOST SHEEP ACTIVITY BOOK
154 ON THE FUN-O-METER

Our research suggests that FUN could be the next big thing. To test this theory, the fun dudes at the Lost Sheep labs have created a swag of activities. Greg the test pig has been strapping on the fun-O-meter to see how the Lost Sheep activities compare to other FUN stuff. While Greg's done a good job, we need you to print off and test out the activities in this book. Have FUN!

These activities may be printed off for home, church, school or group use. School subscribers may upload the file to the internal school computer system. Please don't email, give or sell these files to other people without contacting us.

The fun-O-meter, pony, and rotten tomato are not included with the activity books. Greg is a guinea pig not a pig pig, which is why he doesn't say oink when you squeeze him. There are black & white and colour versions of each activity, so just print off the activities you need. You will find lots of extra teaching and project resources in the Sheepdog School downloadable books.
